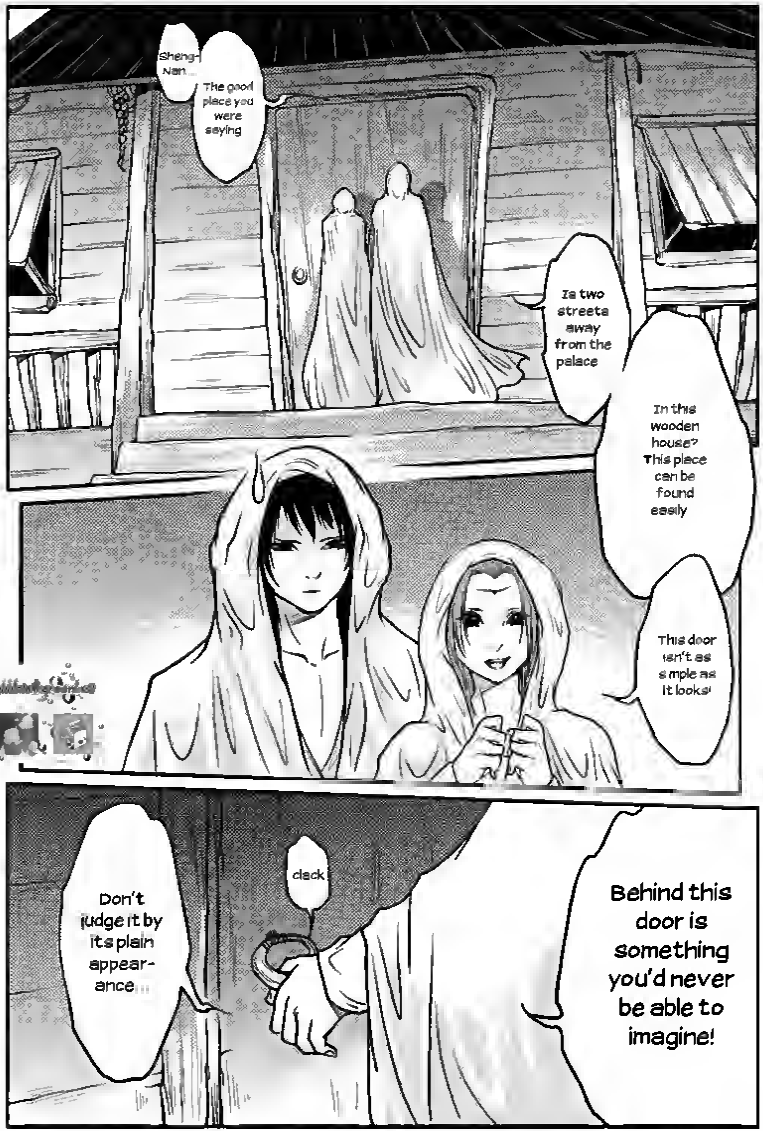
Sheng Nan... Let's leave this place together.

Let's go to a place where no one recognizes us, and start over...
The two of us together...
To-gether?
That's true, this Land of Women is really weird, if we stay we might die... and there's also Lie Long who already hates me.
Okay! Let's leave together.
I know of a good place to go.
I also have someone I want to introduce to you.
He's very similar to you.



Sheng-Nan...
The good place you were saying
Is two streets away from the palace
In this wooden house? This place can be found easily
This door isn't as simple as it looks!
Behind this door is something you'd never be able to imagine!
